GTT Group Announces Touch Screen Patent Acquisition Opportunity

Portland, Oregon (December 2011) -- Global Technology Transfer Group, Inc. (GTT Group) announces the availability of a fundamental patent portfolio related to surface acoustic wave (SAW) touch screen technology.

The Touch Screen patent portfolio consists of five patents related to touch screen panel technology. The portfolio consists of four Japanese patent assets related to Surface Acoustic Wave (SAW) technology and a fifth Japanese asset directed toward 3D position detecting devices.

The Touch Screen patent portfolio encapsulates core SAW technology that has been deployed across a wide variety of markets including healthcare, financial, retail, and hospitality. The Touch Screen patent portfolio is directed towards these basic SAW sensor applications in touch screen displays.

GTT Group is available for technical discussions and to discuss valuation expectations with interested parties.

“Parties looking to expand or supplement their portfolio related to touch screen technologies will be interested in acquiring the patent portfolio,” said GTT Groups’ President and CEO Michael Lubitz.
